Dear Mr. Judson:

Many thanks for your letter of June 1. I had a meeting with Mr. William Glock about three years ago, and a meeting with Mr. Eric Warr last year. In addition, Mr. Malcolm Rickard, one of the top figures of the New Zealand Broadcasting Corporation, wrote Mr. Glock an enthusiastic account of my New Zealand tour last summer. Mr. Wilfred Van Wyck, who was my agent in Britain several years ago, was at that time in touch with the BBC in my behalf.

I do not know what to make of Mr. Warr's statement that there have been "so many changes in the music department here that I doubt if there is now a member of it whom he knows." It seems to me that this ought not to be the crux of the matter, particularly as I do know Mr. Glock and Mr. Warr personally. Perhaps this is Mr. Warr's way of conveying a lack of immediate interest.

I appreciate your efforts in this matter.

With kind regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
